BIOGRAPHY: Theodore A Henning II was exposed to music at an early age. His first instrument was an accordion. Later in Junior High he learned to play the upright bass and took piano lessons. In High School he was introduced to the Dobro guitar and was thereafter invited to be a member of Stu Ramsay and the Clary's Grove Boys. After that he joined an obscure Chicago bluegrass group, The Calumet Sag and Sanitary Canal River Boys. A stint in the Army during the Viet Nam era had him playing at military clubs and USO shows. One time he had opportunity to open for Charlie Pride. Mostly self taught on the guitar, Theo enjoys bluegrass flat picking and three-finger styles. Along the way he took violin lessons, and also plays 5-string banjo. It wasn't until the early '90' s that he began writing his own tunes. First came his positive music spiritual CD, Train Is A Coming. Next came the bluebonnet love song collection, a compilation done with others titled, Texas Roadside Blues. In 2011 he released a CD of Americana/Folk tunes, titled Folkin' Along The Highway. His latest release is an eclectic mix of songs titled, Just Some Stuff. After the demise of the space shuttle Columbia, Theo's song Seven Angels And Columbia received honorable mention from NASA and dignitaries from other countries.. He joined FWSA in 2003, is presently on the Board, and has been active in music around Fort Worth and beyond ever since.
